

DO'S

DON'TS

Do play with your cards at lunchtime

Do not play with cards during break or learning time

Do show your friends your collection if you want to

Do not trade at all (selling, giving, or swapping)

Do keep your cards in your bag during break and learning time

Do not keep your cards in your pockets or in the classroom

Do keep your cards safe and to yourself

Do not touch cards that do not belong to you

If these rules are not followed then a member of teaching staff will confiscate your cards until your adult can collect them at the end of day.

You will then be banned from bringing them into school.
