Go for a walk and identify different trees in a nearby park or wood.

Do you know or can you look up what the flowers and fruit of these trees look like?

You can even put a tree finding app on a phone or tablet to help you.

Wellbeing

Write down five things that you are grateful for and make sure you give someone close to you a compliment by telling them about something positive that you admire about them or think they are good at.

Write down three things that you are good at and three things that you want to work on to improve in the next term.

RE

Think about the codes that religions live by that you have learnt about in school. For example the Christian ten commandments or the five pillars of Islam, Dharma (doing one's duty ,) of Hinduism and the Sikh's code of conduct.

Devise your own code that you think you should live by to live an honest and true life that helps others as well as yourself. Can you list and illustrate at least five points in a special , decorated list.
